A MESSAGE FROM THE CLERK OF COURTS

Pursuant to O.R.C. 1901.14(A)(4), the 2016 Annual Report for the Stow Municipal Court is attached. The Stow Municipal Court serves 16 communities, consisting of 7 cities, 5 villages and 4 townships. This Report is provided to each community and reflects not only jurisdiction-wide totals of the Court's total 2016 case load numbers, revenues and distributions, but also includes a breakdown of these statistics by each community as well.

Overall revenues for 2016 increased 2.67% over 2015 and once again, the Court was able to operate without a deficit charged to our communities. Caseloads increased over last year by 1,074 cases. The Court processed 20,029 cases (3,151 Civil and 16,878 Criminal/Traffic). Below are some of the highlights of 2016:

- The Clerk's office began scanning all civil documents on January 1 and all criminal documents on June 1 in anticipation of implementing eFiling in 2017. All scanned images are accessible on the Court's website at www.stowmunicipalcourt.com. As we compose this message, eFiling is underway in the Civil division. Both attorneys and pro se filers can now register through the eFiling portal available on our website. Thus far, the Court has welcomed some 210 registered users.
- The Court has increased its use of home incarceration and thereby reducing commitments to jails with a savings to our communities of over $100,000.00 and an increase to Court revenues of several hundred thousand dollars.
- The Court continues to operate its Mental Health program called STRIDE (Successful Treatment Results in Developing Excellence) to help those with sensitive issues. Thursday evening programming for people with substance abuse, theft, and low-scale violence issues has been a great success.
- A Victim's Assistance Advocate was placed at our Court to help victims navigate the Court system, answer questions and give guidance to those most affected by the criminal justice system -- the victims of crimes.

We certainly hope that our communities find this Report helpful and invite you to call on us with any questions or concerns. On behalf of Judge Hoover, Judge Coates, myself and all of our dedicated staff at the Stow Municipal Court, we look forward to 2017 and remain focused on continuing to provide you with the highest level of professionalism and customer service.

Respectfully,

DIANA COLAVECCHIO
Clerk of Courts
