A MESSAGE FROM THE CLERK OF COURTS

Pursuant to O.R.C. 1901.14(A)(4), the 2018 Annual Report for the Stow Municipal Court is attached. The Stow Municipal Court serves 16 communities, consisting of 7 cities, 5 villages and 4 townships. This Report is provided to each community and reflects not only jurisdiction-wide totals of the Court's total 2018 case load numbers, revenues and distributions, but also includes a breakdown of these statistics by each community as well.

Overall revenues for 2018 increased by 2.5% from 2017. Once again the Court was able to operate without a deficit charged to our communities. Caseloads also increased over last year by 585 cases. The Court processed 20,291 cases (3,888 Civil and 16,403 Criminal/Traffic). Below are some of the highlights of 2018:

- Since the Clerk's office launched eFiling in January of 2017, the Court has welcomed some 1,184 registered users. Civil filings were up 11%.
- The Court has increased its use of home incarceration and thereby reducing commitments to jails with a savings to our communities of over $100,000.00 and an increase to Court revenues of several hundred thousand dollars.
- The Court continues to operate its Mental Health program called STRIDE (Successful Treatment Results in Developing Excellence) to help those suffering with severe and persistent mental illness. Thursday evening programming for people with substance abuse, theft, and low-scale violence issues has been a great success.
- A Victim's Assistance Advocate was placed at our Court in 2016 to help victims navigate the Court system, answer questions and give guidance to those most affected by the criminal justice system -- the victims of crimes. The citizens of Ohio passed a constitutional amendment (Marsy's Law) which will expand the involvement of victims in the courtroom proceedings.

On behalf of our Judges, Kim Hoover and Lisa Coates, along with myself and all of our dedicated staff at the Stow Municipal Court, we look forward to 2019 and remain focused on continuing to provide you with the highest level of professionalism and customer service. Please contact me directly with any questions or concerns at dcolavecchio@stowmunicourt.com or (330/546-4125).

Respectfully,

DIANA COLAVECCHIO
